

GREENWICH HOUSE POTTERY

New York, NY – Greenwich House Pottery is pleased to announce that Danny Crump has accepted the position of Studio and Fabrications Manager. Danny is replacing Adam Knoche beginning May 19, 2016. Danny has worked as studio technician and faculty with the Pottery over the past two summers. Danny is a visual artist working in ceramics, sculpture and video.

His diverse practice explores collective identities through images and objects that reveal cultural connotations that are funny, absurd, and poetic. He holds an MFA from Ohio University, and a BFA from Utah State University. His work has recently been published in “Cast,” (2015) and “Wood-Fired Ceramics, 100 Contemporary Artists” (2013) by Schiffer Publishing. He has shown his work in over 50 exhibitions nationally and completed residencies in China, New Zealand, Hungary and the US including Flux Factory in Long Island City, where he currently is an artist in residence. We are thrilled to have him back at the Pottery and look forward to his contribution.
